“Being in the Vortex” Daily Practices
Nathan Main – Ninth Level Adept,
Energy Transformationalist

This package contains materials that I recommend we use everyday. Doing so ensures: a positive outlook, a higher vibrational frequency, and that we stay in the Vortex, helping us achieve our dreams, desires and intentions.

These are the same materials we use in our online Vortex Circle’s weekly calls. Using these materials is very powerful when combined with group energy. If you’d like to join us, please contact me to receive an invitation.

These materials were largely downloaded from Infinite Spirit Consciousness and form the foundation that sustains the transformation I have worked with thousands of people to achieve. We achieve our desires when we are in wholeness with Spirit.

I am a Ninth Level Adept Energy Transformationalist, working with Infinite Spirit Consciousness. My mission in life is in serving Spirit and Humankind, facilitating energetic clearing of human programming, removing ego-based / generated resistance, inhibitions, judgments, doubts, fears and countless filters that have humanity stuck in limited consciousness. I love what I do and am passionate about making a difference for those who are ready to shift, transform and transcend beliefs, their attachment to beliefs and belief systems.

Being in the Vortex

How to be in the Vortex of generating positive good, attraction of good and manifestation of good:

The thoughts, feelings and positive attitude we choose to express and demonstrate have everything to do with how high our vibrational frequency is resonating and what we are attracting into our world.

The proclamations we state out loud, intend, express and demonstrate every day in communion with Spirit, for the achievement and attainment of higher vibrational frequency resonance, are what bring about miracles, blessings, healing, transformation, awakening, manifestation and Divine opportunities of greater good into one's life, experience and reality.

Practice saying out loud to Infinite Spirit, Infinite Consciousness and Divine Intelligence, or "Spirit" for short, your Divine Presence and the multitude of Angelic and Light Beings, how grateful you are in every moment for the infinite blessings you enjoy and realize everyday throughout the day.

When you are doing chores around the house or when driving in your vehicle, make up gratitudes and proclamations for what you are choosing for yourself and state them out loud. Make stick'm notes with your favorite proclamations and stick them everywhere as a reminder to state your proclamations and gratitudes.

Remember, the more you express gratitude and elation for everything, the higher your vibrational frequency. As you consistently maintain a high vibrational frequency the greater light you radiate, thus the more vibrant is your attraction factor and the more receptive you are to infinite good and possibility.

The more consistently you maintain the Vortex Energy around yourself the fewer obstacles you'll have to achieving your desires. Your state of mind is peaceful and relaxed and your vibrations are now in alignment with your desires.

We may slip in and out of the Vortex regularly until we accumulate sufficient momentum. This is why it takes concerted effort to remain in that state. Our weekly online Vortex calls are an opportunity to get into the Vortex and stay there, then you may utilize the Vortex materials on your own during the week in order to stay in the Vortex.

The clearing work I do is designed to remove the blocks, conscious and unconscious, that are interfering with perhaps an otherwise clear and harmonious vibrational field that is in alignment with your desires. Your thought patterns and your lifestyle can also impact your ability to stay in the Vortex. By doing the Daily Practices you can make a huge difference in your thought patterns and vibrational frequency. These practices will help tremendously in keeping you in the Vortex.

The Daily Practices, are not enough, however, you also need to work on clearing solidified beliefs, assumptions and conclusions and in clearing or revoking old perceptions, commitments, vows, contracts, etc. You have been creating your life experiences as the playwright of your life script through out eternity. When you take one hundred percent responsibility for everything you have ever experienced, it gives you the power and knowing that you can create your reality as you would have it. By working with Nathan Main that process can be speeded up considerably!

As you do the following proclamations notice how you feel and react. If you feel a dissonance or if you feel uncomfortable, then notice what you are saying when that happens. These feelings are an indication of where you need to put your attention to bring your frequency into alignment with your desires. These are excellent opportunities to do deep clearing work with Nathan Main!

Beliefs

“Beliefs are not the way in which Divine Intelligence functions yet are the way in which the human ego functions.”

Greetings fellow Spiritual Beings,
Allow me to share my thoughts with you, pertaining to beliefs.

Consider that a belief is an opinion with an emotional charge on it, or that a belief is a conviction about something you do not know and that beliefs are a product of the ego-mind. Also consider that aside from believing in a virtue, ideal or principle, believing in ourselves, others or a particular cause, beliefs are not about possibility, rather they create a matrix of constructs that energetically disallows possibility. Also consider that beliefs are a virus upon Humankind, which hinders, stifles and diminishes our Being, and keeps us from realizing who we truly are.

Beliefs are the obstacles that stand in the way of our innate knowing. The more we release our solidified perceptions, programming and propensities to make assumptions and draw conclusions, as well as our attachments to beliefs, the more our infinite knowing is able to surface, and the more we are able to live in infinite possibility.

We are infinite and Divine Light Beings, having a human experience.

We come from light and we return to light. In our true Light Being status, we are free of beliefs. Infinite Spirit Consciousness is not about beliefs, yet about infinite possibility. For Humankind to live in absolute possibility, to ascend to the fourth, fifth or higher dimensions or to achieve immortality, we must first give up our solidified perceptions, conditioned and programmed beliefs, as well as our false virtues of beliefs, period. We must overcome, outgrow and transcend from our ego-mind generated beliefs (this includes religiosity) before we can ever fully awaken to who we truly are. Consider that you are truly a Glorious, Magnificent, Powerful, and Spiritual, Creator Light Being.

“I am an Infinite & Divine Light Being, having a human experience.”

Divine blessings, everyone, I'm, (First name). I'm happy to BE here.

Nathan Main – Ninth Level Adept, Energy Transformalist

Nathan is an ongoing student/teacher of Esoteric, New Age, Mystical and Ascended Master Teachings. Since 1987, he's been a Light Worker and Spiritual Healer as well as a multi-modality, hands-on healer, and a mental, emotional and Spiritual Energy Transformation/Healing Facilitator since 2002. Over the years, Nathan has developed tremendous Spiritual and Intuitive gifts, talents and abilities, which include working with higher levels of Consciousness, Angelic and Light Beings, from Infinite levels of Spirit Consciousness and His own "Divine Presence."

Nathan has a Divine purpose, which is to facilitate transformational healing and awakening to individuals and groups, and introduce them to the higher principles and concepts Spirit intends for humanity. This knowledge transcends the limitations of religious beliefs, and allows for greater Spiritual empowerment, understanding and possibility. This new and old sacred knowledge is based on the Spiritual principle that we are Infinite & Divine Creator Beings and an expression of Infinite Spirit, Infinite Consciousness and Divine Intelligence. The name GOD is made up and has no energy, nor does Father or Father Mother God. They were made up by man and do not hold up as truth in Infinite & Divine Spirit Consciousness. Jesus referred to (Father) as his own Divine Presence, and not as a supreme-being, creator or father figure. Nathan proves this energetically with muscle checking.
